

Of acceptance, inclusion and belonging

We all long for acceptance and being part of a genuine community can see us through tough times. The Bible says in Romans 2:11 - God shows no partiality. No matter what your background, struggles, or story—you are welcome at His table (Luke 14:12). This June, watch real-life stories, of people who came out of the isolation of discrimination, violence, and poverty through the support of an inclusive community on ♦ Ek Nayee Zindagi on Colors TV | Mon–Fri | 6:30 AM

Beats That Break Barriers

In a colony pushed to the edges of society, two sisters—now known as the Rap Twins—grew up surrounded by discrimination. But instead of walking away, they chose to speak up. With bold lyrics and gospel beats, they began bridging a gap many believed was beyond repair. What gave them the courage to believe that even the most forgotten have a voice? And how did rap become their voice of belonging? Discover their powerful journey of faith, music, and radical.

Trapped in Pahalgam Valley on that fateful April day

While exploring the scenic valley of Pahalgam, a peaceful trip took a dark turn as chaos erupted and fear gripped the air. Surrounded by danger and uncertainty, one young woman stood firm—not in her own strength, but in unshakable faith. As gunfire rang out and lives were threatened, she clung to scripture and called on Jesus with every breath. What gave her boldness when others broke? And how did she walk out untouched from what felt like the valley of death itself?
