Aunty Meneii – A Study in Heritage & Humility

CBN had the rare honour of filming with Atsa Meneii — lovingly known as Aunty Meneii — an octogenarian whose life carries the history and identity of her people. A treasured member of the Naga Christian Fellowship, Delhi, she is the granddaughter of the first pastor who ministered to the Naga tribe and the daughter of the first Naga officer in the British Army. Hers is not just a personal story but a living heritage. Watch this Women's day special.

From Failure to Awards

Khrawborbha Kharpuri worked at Shillong's first food truck, The Chicken Wagon. When the owner decided to shut it down, he felt led to take over — but before taking the step, he asked God for a sign. On his way to pitch the idea, he rear-ended a chicken truck and found his answer. Watch how a struggling business turned into an award-winning success.
