

LONELINESS & BELONGING

Migrations, loss, feeling unseen, and real and metaphorical distances are creating a deep sense of loneliness and loss amongst people. But people long to belong. They long to find their tribe. This month, explore exile and displacement — not only from your own home, but also from your own sense of self- and find belonging in God's love and community in God's people.

Tune into Ek Nayee Zindagi, Monday to Friday at 6:30 AM on Colors TV and be a part of a community of people that needs you right now. 📺

The Lonely Home

After years of hoping for a child, Aलो and Kini found themselves facing disappointment, medical treatments, and the emotional weight of infertility. The questions, expectations, and waiting left them feeling exhausted. Their relationship too grew strained. In their lowest moments, this young couple made one change that rewrote their entire story.

Have you ever felt lonely even in your relationship? 🧑🏻 Watch Aलो & Kini Naga's full story.

When He Felt Like a Failure

After losing his job, Kaustav returned home carrying the weight of failure, anxiety, and loneliness. Unable to share his struggles with anyone, he searched online for answers. There, he discovered the message of Jesus, and as he began reading the Bible, he felt he was reading a love letter from a loving Father. Today, he encourages others through his podcast ministry, reminding them that no one has to face loneliness alone

Feeling alone despite having a family? 🧑🏻 Watch Kaustav's inspiring story.

Ek Nayee Zindagi is sharing real-life stories and messages of hope in sign language on Colors TV—reaching the deaf community in their own language. Many are still waiting to be reached.
