When Goodbye Comes Too Soon

Rebecca Rebello lost her 21-year-old daughter, Shawnelle, to tuberculosis. Overwhelmed by grief and unanswered questions, she struggled to find her way forward. Through faith and the promise of God's Word, Rebecca found comfort and now encourages others who are grieving to hold on to hope.

In the Valley of Loss, She Found God

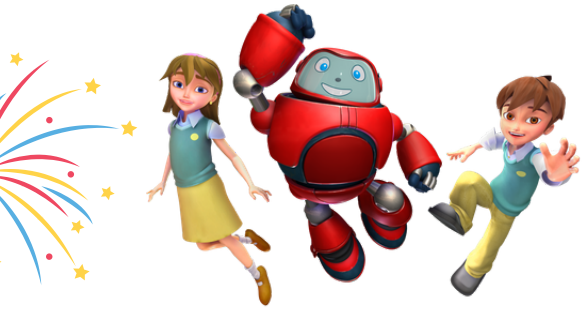

Runohile was devastated when her mother passed away unexpectedly. Her loss left her struggling to continue her theological studies and care for her family. But through prayer and the promise of Psalm 34:18, she found strength to move forward, trusting God with her future.
